

PEOPLE: MONTH #109

"folk photographed at first in the netherlands like on of myrthe's colleagues and then going to the mountains photographing a guy on the plane and later two artists coming to beg for work as i started renovating the barn one of which completely changed by a family trauma and then also photographing the wife of my neighbour andrea and later going to murano almost getting on a fight in the ferry with the locals passing in front of all the tourists and photographing the son of my stepfather's cousin after i traveled to india taking many nice photos"

PEOPLE: MONTH #110

"folk met during easter holiday in venice such as the daughter and boyfriend of my stepfather's cousin in murano and an old man working in the santa lucia church but also the priest coming to bless my house in the mountains and again in venice meeting a jewish couple and in the mountains a cool serbian coming to plaster the ceiling of my barn and finally back in venice the priest to whom my stepfather got so attached to"

PEOPLE: MONTH #111

"students from my swedish university who wanted to be photographed after they overheard about my project and my upcoming exhibit at the hasselblad foundation in gothenburg and photographing there the workers and the nice guy who helped me with the installation but also a visitor from england"

PEOPLE: MONTH #112

"people met throughout my exhibit in gothenburg like a japanese family interested in my work but also an assistant and a german italian girl making a documentary about it and also the yugoslavian main curator and her assistant"

PEOPLE: MONTH #113

"still folk met in gothenburg like some assistance from the academy and some rather important artists like one from england who was really fun to hang out with and a danish one but also the american husband of a famous swedish artist"

PEOPLE: MONTH #114

"folk met again during the exhibit and this time getting to talk to an important polish swedish photographer and an important swedish artist and a lesbian translator who i later met again in by chance in a small indian village and back in holland for the summer now meeting the a couple from milan and a pretty smart and skilled guitarist from naples who also moved to culemborg with his dutch wife"

PEOPLE: MONTH #115

"folk met in holland from our small town like a dutch girl married to a northern italian and a cool adventurous neighbour but also traveling to italy and getting to talk to the southern italian taxi driver and later meeting a woman with supernatural powers from my contrada in the mountains and a transcendentalist cousin of her"

PEOPLE: MONTH #116

"folk met while in italy working on my installation in the barn attic and getting to know the guy bringing me the gyps panels from my mother as well as the artisan building the barn doors and windows and also getting to know better the the boys and girls from the village during the summer festivity"

PEOPLE: MONTH #117

"folk met entirely while in italy in the alps like the local youth and also a couple believing in supernatural powers and my kind neighbour manuela with her very old mother as well as the father of my half-sister son"

PEOPLE: MONTH #118

"people met while up in the mountains like the folk running a family cheese production high up and a guy working in an old fossil mine but also people met during my stepfather's birthday in my native village like the neighbour's kids and a rich venetian guy devoted to the priest and later caught with prostitutes"

PEOPLE: MONTH #119

"meeting the pregnant girlfriend of a relative in my native town and then in the mountains meeting folk coming to visit my installation in the barn like the wife of my neighbour and her father but also meeting a romanian man looking after the sheep and a nice guy walking down the carega mountain before meeting a local visiting my barn installation"

PEOPLE: MONTH #120

"folk met again showing my installation in the barn in the mountains like a woman living in the contrada with her family and a talented artist from bassano but also a very intelligent painter and art teacher from schio and meeting two guys from a lower contrada renovating a house there and later traveling back to holland through france and meeting some french people on the way while in dijon"

PEOPLE: MONTH #121

"people met showing my face back in stockholm and meeting jacek at an opening in town and getting to know some foreign artists there before renting a room in uppsala and meeting my dutch host and her australian friend and then other folk traveling back to holland"

PEOPLE: MONTH #122

"getting to know better my swedish colleagues and photographing them during one of the last conferences together in stockholm and also photographing a german girl and a south america guy met at the hostel where i spent the night after renting out my apartment"

PEOPLE: MONTH #123

"meeting people in the stockholm dormitory where i sleep to teach at the university and meeting my girlfriend's relatives such as her brother's girlfriends and her uncle at the birthday of her grandmother becoming the oldest of bred a and managing to meet her and photograph her right before her death"

PEOPLE: MONTH #124

"meeting a few persons in the stockholm hostel like a contemporary musician from galicia and a girl from china but also meeting a friendly belgian researcher at my university before going to aarhus for my art exhibition there and meeting the museum staff like the spanish carpenter setting up my exhibit and then taking a long walk along the coast and meeting a local guy hiding cameras in the forest to daily photograph the changing of the landscape"

PEOPLE: MONTH #125

"folk met exhibiting at the aarhus art museum in denmark like some journalists interviewing me and some people coming to talk to me during the opening but also a danish guy in charge of photographing it"

PEOPLE: MONTH #126

"folk met at first while in denmark for my show at the aarhus art museum and meeting some of the curators there and later going to venice for a presentation at the cini foundation meeting other presenters like some friends of davide and some more techie guys as well as davide old professor from the art academy"

PEOPLE: MONTH #127

"folk met still right after my presentation at thecini foundation in venice like some chinese students on exchange in perugia asking me to exhibit in china and an american lady running a cultural center in venice but also an architect with some apparent big connections and at last folk met during my airplane trip to india such as a man with quite a carrier dropping everything to travel and students"

PEOPLE: MONTH #128

"people met in bengaluru now visiting the art academy who has hosted me there and meeting one of the italian teachers and all the students and staff exhibiting my work and showing me around town especially helping me to withdraw money with no atms working after the government had policies on corruption"

PEOPLE: MONTH #129

"folk again met in bengaluru now both at the art academy visiting students in their flat and talking to them despite finding several completely stoned but also walking around the city in search for a place where to withdraw cash and meeting people helping me out with literally all atms being cashless"

PEOPLE: MONTH #130

"folk met to begin with traveling away from bengaluru with davide and awaiting for a train to take us south meeting several pilgrims and then a few tourists like a french-vietnamese girl and an australian guy leading us to an ashram"

PEOPLE: MONTH #131

"people met in the near of amma's ashram in southern india now going often outside the ashram to truly get in touch with the locals and meeting tsunami hit fishermen but also europeans with a heavy drug history now permanent residents of the ashram and personal paying students of amma"

PEOPLE: MONTH #132

"meeting more folk from amma's ashram in southern india being only able to photograph them outside the ashram as cameras are not allowed to be used within and leaving the hippy place to go further down to varkala meeting a german couple on the road and later walking extensively and getting to know an interesting swedish couple with the guy being a former rather famous photojournalist and then also getting to know a retired north american guy and a lesbian danish artist who even came to my exhibition in gothenburg"

PEOPLE: MONTH #133

"people met while in the coastal city of varkala getting to know folk from the very north of india but also a merchant from tibet and later a pilgrim on my way to madurai and again a merchant and lastly a very poor man who fixed my friend davide's shoes in muddy street"

PEOPLE: MONTH #134

"folk met at first in madurai spending several days in and around the ancient temple there with only very few white people and myself being allowed everywhere given my indian-like skin colour and at last going to tiruvannamalai and staying in the bed and breakfast of an indian man and his friend sleeping on the roof and cooking for us"

PEOPLE: MONTH #135

"still in the southern indian small city of tiruvannamalai with davide during a main festivity with many pilgrims coming there and us staying quite far out but making often on foot to the main guru sites and meeting several westerners such as a british archer and a german and an italian traveler but also a dutch guy follower of amma and a former russian actress now devoted to the following of one of the guru and getting to know her while waiting in a huge line to be able to withdraw money in the cash machine but also meeting an american italian woman and later a guru pretending to be a guru on the way up the tiruvannamalai mountain with the resting shiva"

PEOPLE: MONTH #136

"tamil people met in the small village south of tiruvannamalai like a couple on their way to get married and an old man coming to talk to our land owners to get weed and a young boy to whom i gave my silver necklace but also a few people met while walking around the holy mountain"

PEOPLE: MONTH #137

"still in tiruvannamalai walking around the holy mountain there getting to know several pilgrims and a few europeans on my way with davide back to bangalore by bus"

PEOPLE: MONTH #138

"folk met while living in different places in stockholm after having rented out my apartment there and having to teach in the middle of the winter staying first at a young family of chileans and later in a youth hostel downtown meeting interesting people such as a chess champion and younger folk from around the world"

PEOPLE: MONTH #139

"saudi arabian girls met in the flat where i was renting a room to be with august in uppsala and later other young folk met living in different youth hostels in stockholm while teaching there and also meeting the wife of my girlfriend's uncle living in the dutch countryside and back in sweden renting a room from the apartment of a nice american lesbian woman"

PEOPLE: MONTH #140

"folk met while in sweden renting rooms from people apartment such as the room i rented from a brazilian woman working day and night as a bus driver to pay off her mortgage and also meeting a scary finnish boxer on the plane with his friend on the way to amsterdam and in venice meeting the old man teaching my stepfather how to row the gondola as well as meeting a rich couple at the mass with my parents to later meet my friend florian new young girlfriend while traveling through his house in germany"

PEOPLE: MONTH #141

"folk met while in italy like an african refugee i helped with some money and some of my best friend francesco's friends but also two art students i met on the train and an american artist drawing in the venice giardini and a chinese young tourist met on my way to lido with my parents"

PEOPLE: MONTH #142

"folk met while in venice such as some chinese young tourists met on the way to lido and a spanish couple with a man being a catalonian fierceful independentist and then also on the train meeting an italian rapper making his living as a pizza man and also photographing the real estate agent selling me my apartment in venice and later photographing the owner of the pizza place below our mountain village and the brother of the father of my stepsister son"

PEOPLE: MONTH #143

"getting to know the mother of an old italian friend met after i went briefly to a party he made in his house on the hills and then in sweden meeting with the graphic editor of my thesis and getting to know his background in scotland and his disease and then renting a room from a bengali nice guy working as a security guard but hoping to start a factory in his country and then photographing the university photographer taking pictures of me and meeting two finnish friend smoking weed on a hill in the forest while i was drawing and meeting an english guy living in an island nearby stockholm as well as getting hosted by a very outgoing indian programmer"

PEOPLE: MONTH #144

"very nice folk met while in a hostel in central stockholm without an apartment basically living there to attend the university and chatting much with two nice sisters from alaska and a young guy i helped to catch the bus back to germany as well as sharing the dormitory room with a nice brazilian girl and also meeting other americans"