

FILMS: MONTH #037

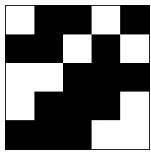

"in boston tracing my walks and filming also the process of digitizing them before filming a whole section of myself doing various household tasks and photographing my right hand also filming the rising of the sun so magnificent in panagiotis compound overlooking the charles river and then going to downtown boston and filming there the recording of the songs i hear played in a public concert"

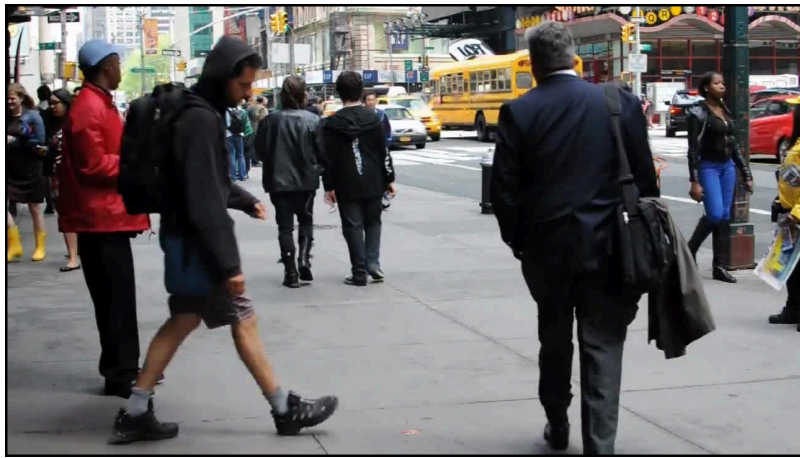

FILMS: MONTH #038

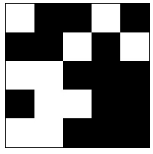

"on my way to new york city by bus with my chinese indonesian friend audrey filming myself observing clouds and then staying in brooklin in jason's apartment taking a long walk from there to the city and also filming my experiencing of the traffic before getting back to jason's apartment and scanning quotes from books"

FILMS: MONTH #039

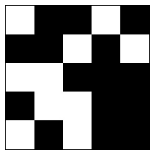

"filming myself while picking trash around time square in new york and also filming public spaces before checking out the animal presence in central park and doing some training there at last filming myself exploring the surrounding architecture and in particular the old obelisk in the near of the metropolitan museum"

FILMS: MONTH #040

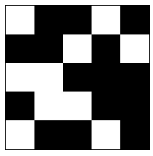

"filming a last scene in new york waking up with the sun light and then back in stockholm filming myself doing some readings on the hill in the middle of my university and then spending some time with august teaching him how to photograph with a camera i brought to him as a present from the states at last also trying to pass on to my students all my digital skills with both hardware and software but finding most of them quite reluctant of doing anything with their hands"

FILMS: MONTH #041

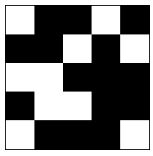

"spending a nice time with my kid and my gambian roommate lamin and filming our going around to exhibitions in stockholm at last just keeping it in sodertalje and observing the clouds as well as the wind while with little big august always on my side"

FILMS: MONTH #042

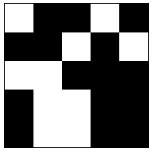

"filming some nice spontaneous play with my son august while in our poor part of town and then also spending time in his rich neighborhood and filming some training in the forest but also a small gig with mikael goralski before making it to the netherlands and filming there recording the songs i hear been payed by the belfry right in front of myrthe's window as well as on the street"

FILMS: MONTH #043

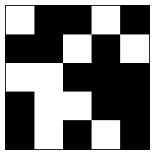

"filming at first my university students presenting their videos and then while in spain at first taking a walk with myrthe in cervantes' city of toledo starting from the outside and all the way through it and also there visiting the cathedral before improvising some filming while in madrid with my parents and my sister showing her daughter anna the many street performers and also filming a bit of the romance between myrthe and i before making it back to sweden and updating my project while in the room assigned to me during one of the fancy department conferences"

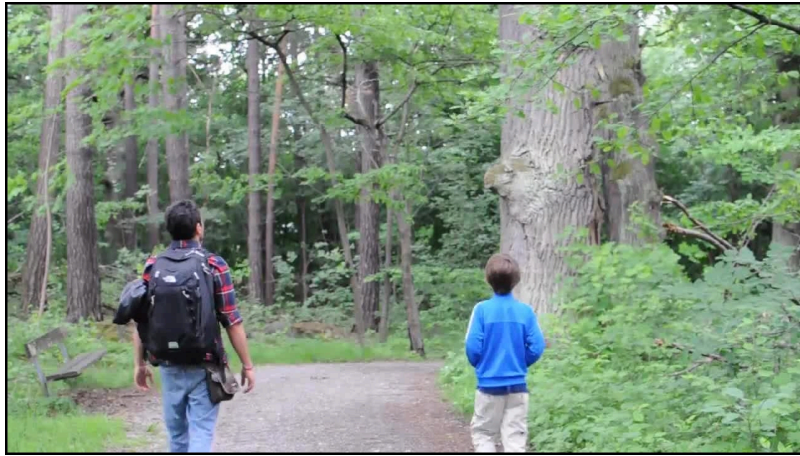

FILMS: MONTH #044

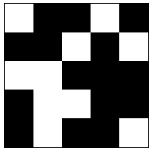

"still at the department conference as usual trying to spend time by myself and talking a lonely walk filming also myself recording thoughts before being with my son in his primary school to celebrate the end of the year and nicely depicting this moment as well as our long walk all the way from his fancy neighborhood of djursholm to stockholm city filming here the rising of the wind and some sightseeing"

FILMS: MONTH #045

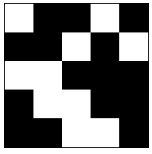

"filming myself with august while filming public places just outside stockholm but also while checking out the nature there before making home to my apartment and update my website on my desktop computer at last filming myself observing clouds in the sky and finally back in my apartment painting and writing down some reflections"

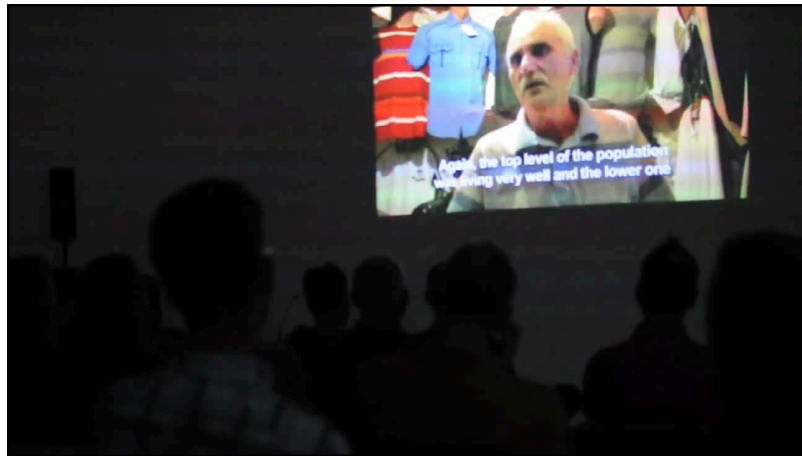

FILMS: MONTH #046

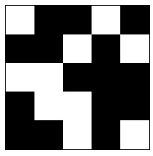

"still filming some jolly moments with my son checking out the nature and eating wild strawberries but also watching documentaries together before doing a picnic with jacek and other scholars in stockholm and recording the wind to at last filming a section of some renovation in my small apartment photographing the tools i used"

FILMS: MONTH #047

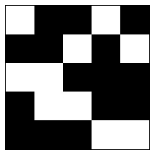

"with myrthe checking a presentation and then with my american curator friend jason also attending a presentation of the utrecht mall before filming a small section of us two walking and later picking some trash before getting some inspirations for my drawings and at last exploring a park with several animals"

FILMS: MONTH #048

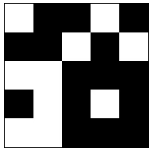

"filming while in the netherlands visiting my girlfriend's students exhibition and later filming while on her brother's car with her recording the songs i hear before filming myself updating my website and at last visiting the belgium and filming extensively public places in belgium while with myrthe on my side"

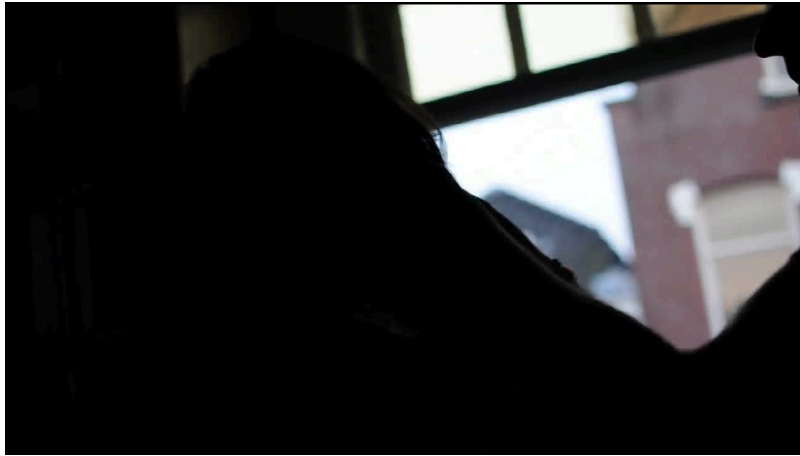

FILMS: MONTH #049

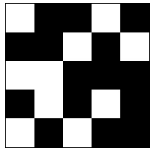

"still in antwerp filming myself picking trash and using my girlfriend's backpack to collect it and then visiting a museum there before also filming my awakening in our rented apartment checking out the weather also trying to read some mcluhan while on the train back to the netherlands and filming myself feeding myrthe's nephew pepijn while photographing the objects i use"

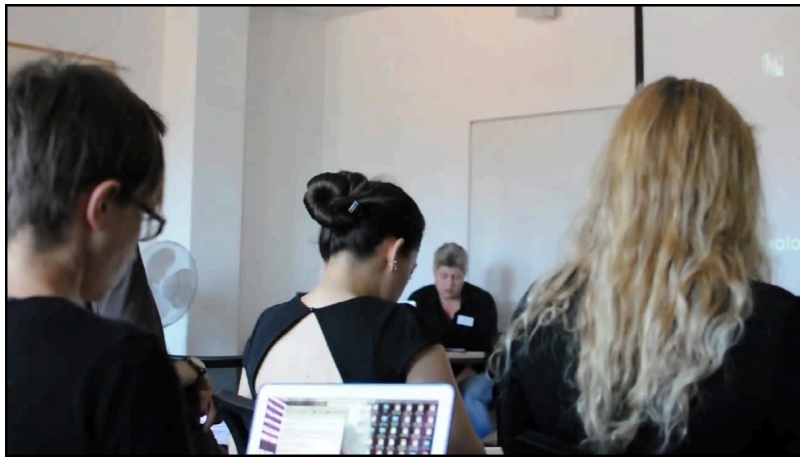

FILMS: MONTH #050

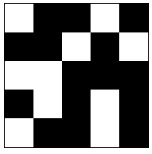

"filming myself with myrthe taking small bike tours to the north of utrecht and checking out the nature there before making it to warwick university for a seminar and checking the beautiful english landscape kissed by the summer sun and observing clouds as well as the animals before filming a training section"

FILMS: MONTH #051

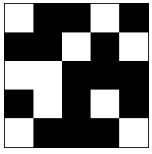

"filming my getting quite fed up with the seminar at warwick at last waking up before sunrise to make the most of my visit there and walking a huge distance all the way to coventry filming also picking trash while there and then my experiencing of the pollution in the city"

FILMS: MONTH #052

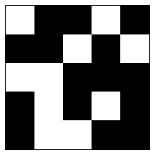

"making the most of my time in england and filming myself in my room prior going to bed yet with still some sun outside writing a fable but also taking another very long walk recording my thoughts and reaching a beautiful ruin of a castle eating berries there and checking it out and later filming myself back in the netherlands taking a long walk with my girlfriend and with her checking out the dutch nature"

FILMS: MONTH #053

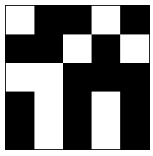

"filming a bit of romance with myrthe while in utrecht and then filming a bit of the life i spent at airports such as reading the news spending the night on a bench and doing some exercises and then hearing songs and then finding some grass outside the airport where to sleep a bit and observe the passing clouds at last taking august to my mother's at the italian sea side in lignano and filming a section eating fish with also my step sister and photographing the object i use with my right hand"

FILMS: MONTH #054

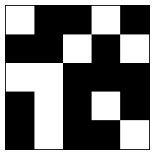

"at the seaside in lignano with my son august checking the weather out early in the morning and then filming myself photographing the right hand while playing with august and my niece anna on the beach before filming our walk together and also filming myself filming public places with august patiently waiting on my side and also filming my hearing songs while walking with him through the downtown in the evening and also getting some ideas waiting for him to play in an adventure park"

FILMS: MONTH #055

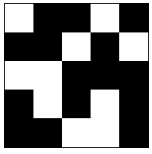

"checking out with august the street shows at my mother's seaside place in italy and then filming all the traffic and pollution there and once again filming myself photographing the right hand in the morning also while having breakfast with my twin sister and her family just wearing underwear in the end trying to escape the tourist beach and building a shed to protect us from the sun right next to the tagliamento river where i used to paint and do video performances"

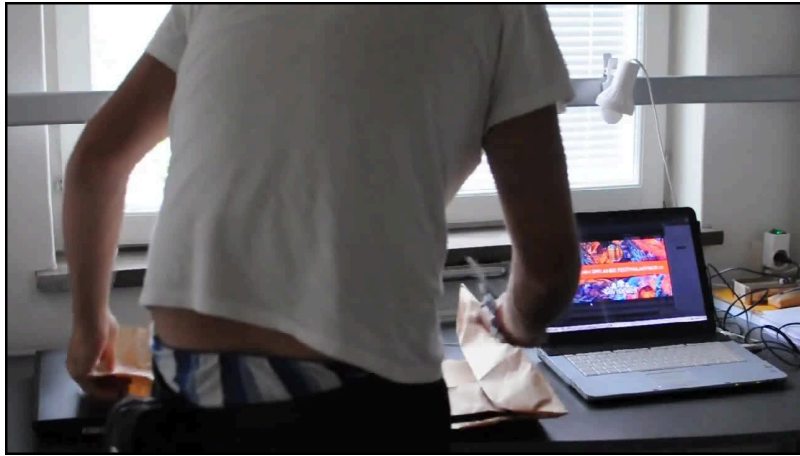

FILMS: MONTH #056

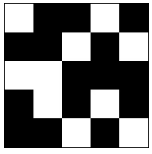

"in the wild beach in the near of my mother seaside place in lignano checking some of the creatures there and then training doing tai-chi and swimming and biking back to my mother before traveling to sweden observing clouds and in the end staying with august in his mother's apartment reading some mcluhan and taking notes as well checking out a porcupine living in the small garden before going back to my depressing neighborhood in the south of stockholm and there doing some updating of the songs i have heard composing also one with my melodica"

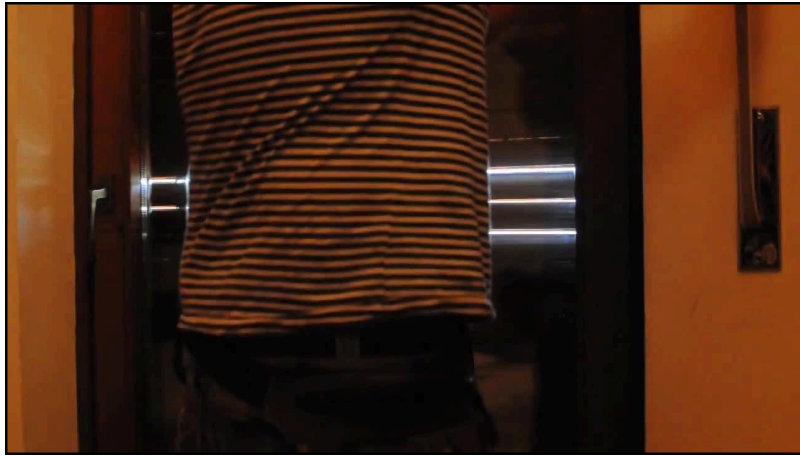

FILMS: MONTH #057

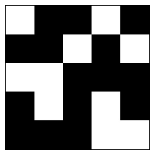

"filming scanning trash in the small room now vacated by my gambian roommate lamin and also filming doing some home improvements and photographing the objects i use before filming a training section in the semi abandoned suburb in the near of my apartment before listening to some music also driving and filming some romance with myrthe visiting me as well as improvising some dancing for her"

FILMS: MONTH #058

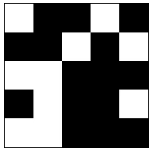

"film shot entirely while on holiday in my native highland with myrthe and august and getting back in love with the landscape there also taking a walk up the spitz verle but also tiring august and trying to revive him checking out a small farm and listening to a choir in the town cathedral but also hanging out with my relative stefano stern in his family hut on mountain zebio"

FILMS: MONTH #059

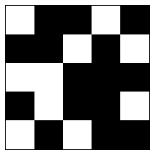

"with my son august exploring the natural labyrinth of the castelloni di san marco in my native highland and then stopping at a cheese farm experiencing some traditional singing and drinking from lowlanders and back in sweden reading and scanning quotes but also experimenting with taking photos for my essays before watching a documentary with my son at last with him going to a small beach we found in a nice part of the too industrialized suburb and there observing the clouds while also lighting a fire for cooking"

FILMS: MONTH #060

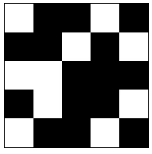

"with my son at first getting his help to start labeling my devices and then improvising a dance with him in my small apartment before going for a walk in the east of stockholm with my polish friend jacek smolicki and american jewish girlfriend brett ascarelli and filming the surrounding and later writing my dreams down while standing and at last filming myself at night recording my thoughts while walking alone"

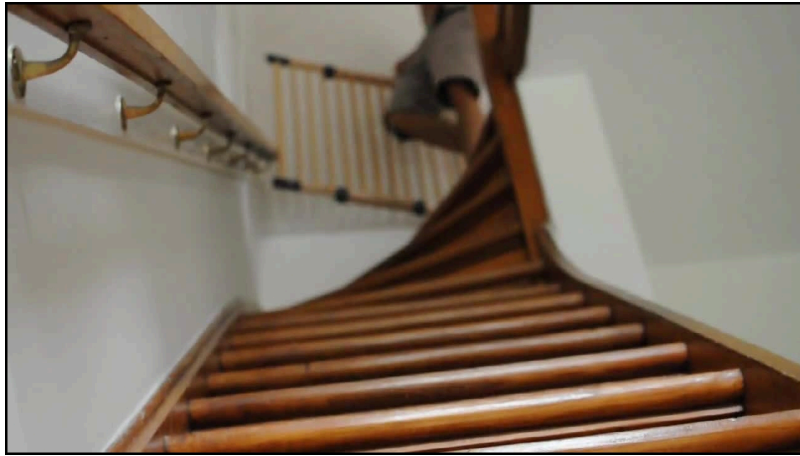

FILMS: MONTH #061

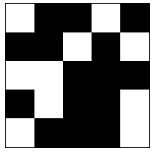

"back with myrthe in the netherlands at first preparing some food in her small apartment and photographing my right hand before traveling to maastricht writing an essay and once there take a nice walk through the city with myrthe on my side filming also some romance and with her also checking some of the cute animals from the zoo"

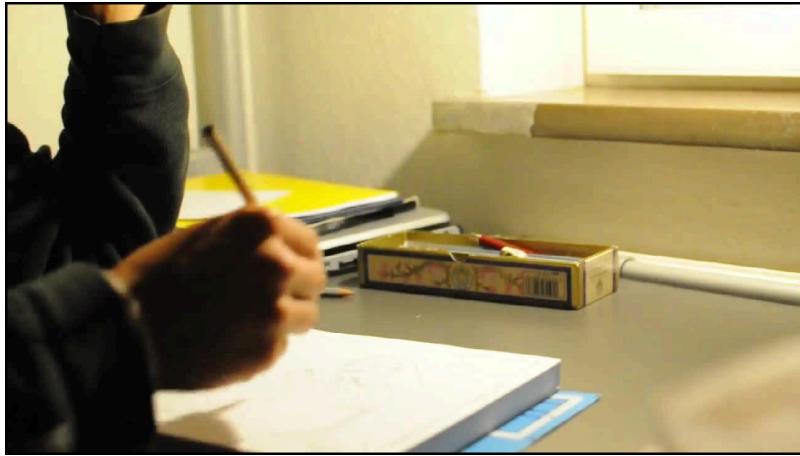

FILMS: MONTH #062

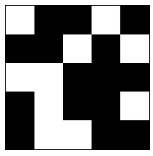

"filming waking up and checking the weather while in myrthe's brother house and then filming my first hand experience of a belgian fortification and then checking out with myrthe the aldo rossi museum in maastricht but also one back in stockholm along with my finnish filmmaker friend mervi kukkonen and in between getting ideas and observing clouds mostly taking advantage of all the commuting"

FILMS: MONTH #063

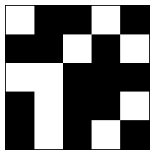

"filming myself preparing an illustration and then working on my website before observing my son august interacting with a rabbit in a stockholm cemetery before fixing up with him an abandoned bike photographing the tools i used but also filming a sweet day spent together by the lake roasting sausages on a fire and later hanging out with my norwegian friend asmund izaki"

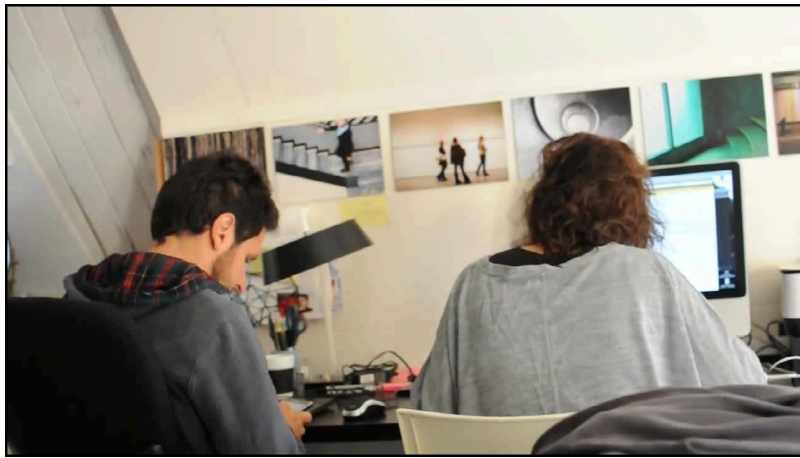

FILMS: MONTH #064

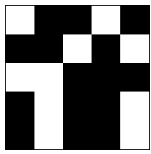

"with my son august by a swedish lake observing a swan with her young ones before writing an essay while at the university and later getting some ideas entering the metro and back in my apartment filming a painting section before making it back to utrecht and there strolling around with myrthe getting aware of the rising of the wind and later drawing in her kitchen table"

FILMS: MONTH #065

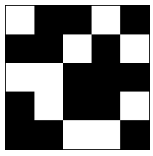

"in the netherlands recording the songs i hear in myrthe's room and then checking with her a few exhibitions both in amsterdam at the de appel and then in utrecht at a big temporary space soon to be demolished and also managing some exercise with my filming camera however getting stolen after i forgot it in the back of myrthe's bike prior going to babysit one of her friends' children and then filming with an identical spare camera back in stockholm picking rose-hips and making juice out of them with my son as his mother taught me"

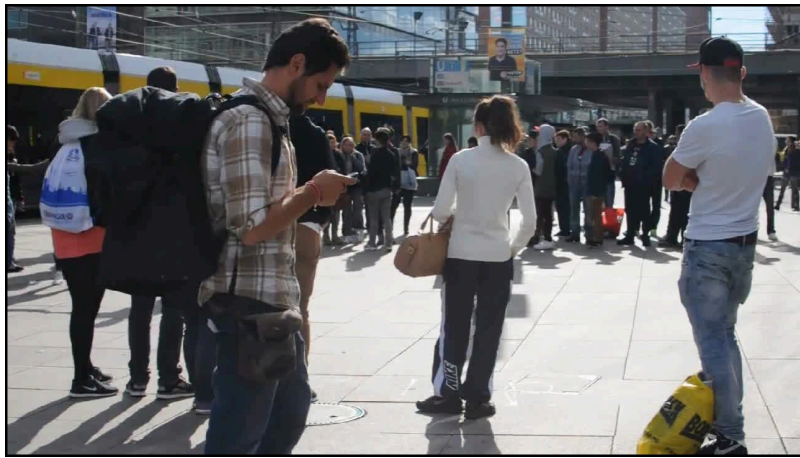

FILMS: MONTH #066

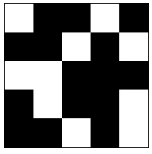

"still spending some very cute time with my son and filming our life as in an old neorealist movie walking with a mattress found on the road and later playing in my small apartment before spending some time in his mother apartment and filming me drawing and later filming recording my thoughts and then taking a very long walk from nykoping to the airport filming for the first time my photographing with the zoom camera anything that intrigued me"

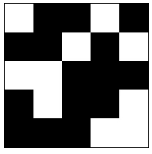

FILMS: MONTH #067

"in berlin filming myself recording the songs i heard while in public places waiting for myrthe to arrive and later writing in my journal somewhere in the room we rented from a transvestite living in the suburbs and filming myself filming public places before also filming some romance and then at a restaurant filming myself drawing the long walk we just accomplished and then back in our room filming my experience of the rise of a beautiful autumn day despite being quite much in a crisis with my swedish supervisor and the conservative environment there"

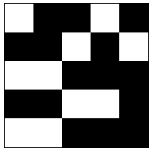

"still with myrthe in berlin checking out the clouds going to a second hand market and then filming our experience of the wall there and the open air museum explaining it before being left alone in the city and taking extremely long walks making it even up the devil mountain where the debris of the bombed berlin were placed and then from there walking all the way back to the city center where i fed myself and picked trash before some days later going to potsdam to also do very extensive walking and there filming myself observing the rise of the wind"

FILMS: MONTH #069

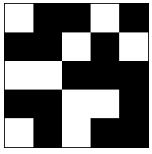

"checking out the garden around the potsdam villa and then filming while recording my thoughts there before filming some experience of the traffic on my way back to berlin and later filming a section of my cloud making work before spending more time with august in my apartment watching him playing minecraft and later getting his help to rearrange my physical archive"

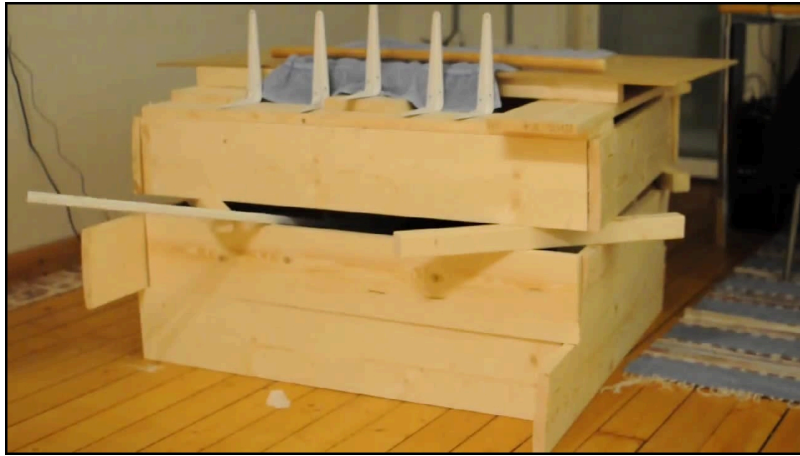

FILMS: MONTH #070

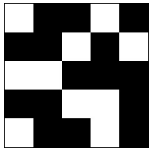

"back in sweden filming yet another section of myself photographing the objects i use while taking a bath and then trying out to scan several drawings at once before checking out an animal related exhibition in the middle of stockholm while making it with august to his apartment and in stockholm checking an experimental music event also filming my polish friend jacek smolicki doing a bit on an incomprehensible intervention to then return to august in his apartment and filming my editing of the head-shots of people and later as he felt sick making it back together to my apartment and while waiting for the commuter train writing an essay"

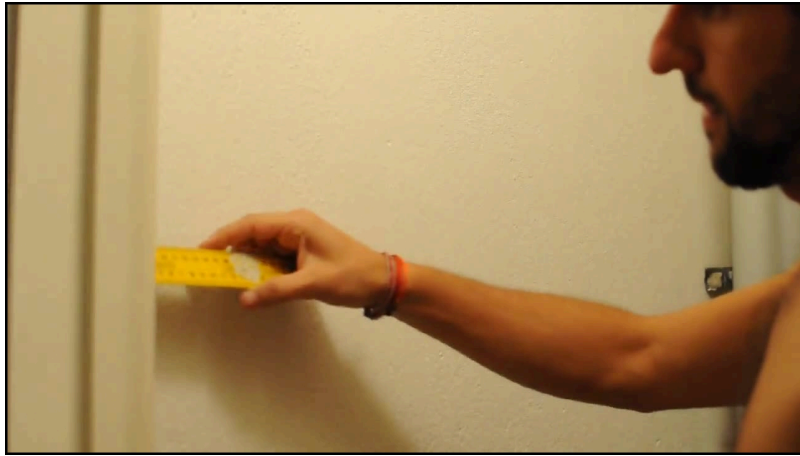

FILMS: MONTH #071

"interacting with my son august in my little apartment and with him checking out my book of dreams before enjoying some sun by a lake and doing some training on a hill before taking a bike trip and filming public places and also picking some garbage to later resuming on my plan to turn my apartment into a showroom of my project"

FILMS: MONTH #072

"filming another section renovating my apartment and photographing the objects i use to then film briefly a seminar i attended at the university and then updating my website before staying with august in his apartment and recovering some clothes in the trash before checking out the history museum together and its viking treasure"