

MATRICES: MONTH #073

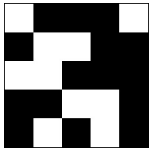

"at home with silvester after a morning walk starting to print this batch but then getting called by mathijn to meet him and little fioralba leaving the machine running and completing the work at our return"

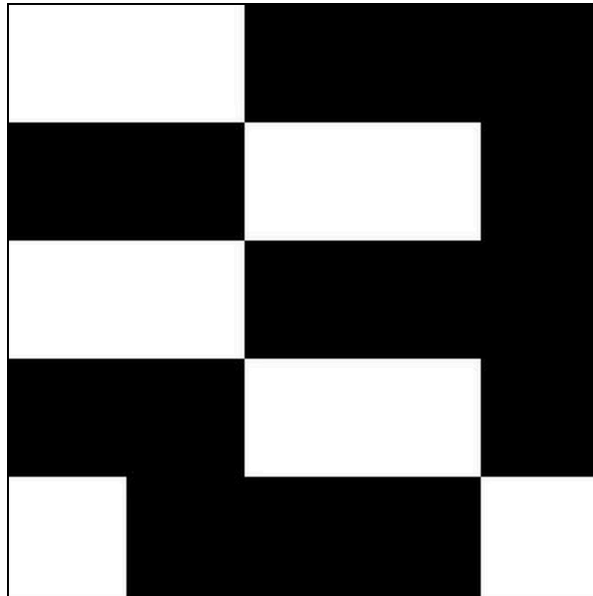

MATRICES: MONTH #074

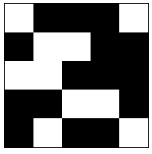

"with both kids taking care of them in the evening and printing without issues despite the increasing heat in the attic and the new boxes of plates placed in total disorder and with some scratches by the austrian company"

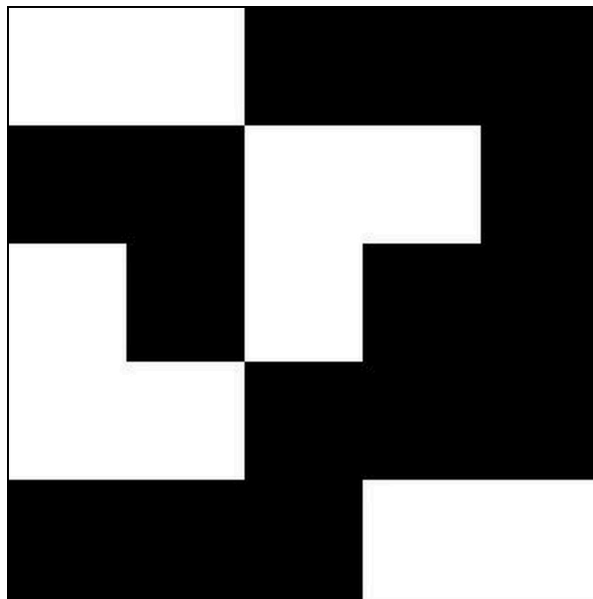

MATRICES: MONTH #075

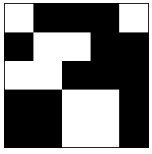

"left alone with little silvester managing this batch prior and after taking him to a children farm in town and later back home doing some updating with him playing in the living room still setting up new plates to print in the attic."

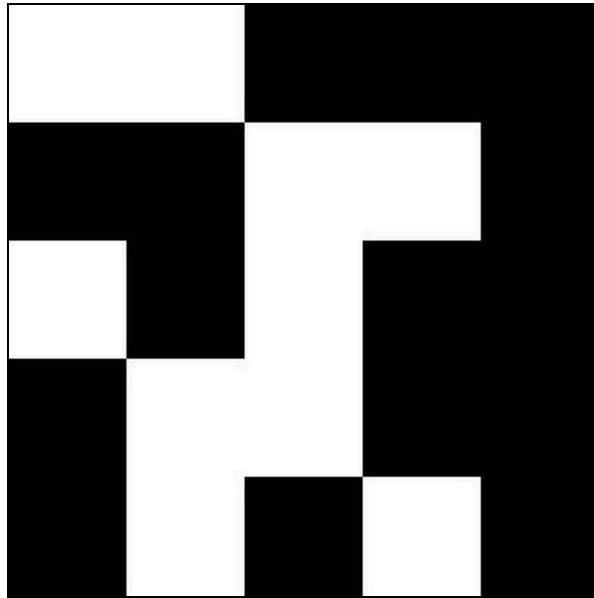

MATRICES: MONTH #076

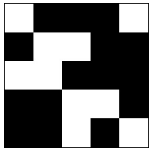

" at first printing with myrthe coming home for a few hours after work but then leaving again and spending much time trying to make the children to sleep telling them stories and in the meantime putting new plates in the machine"

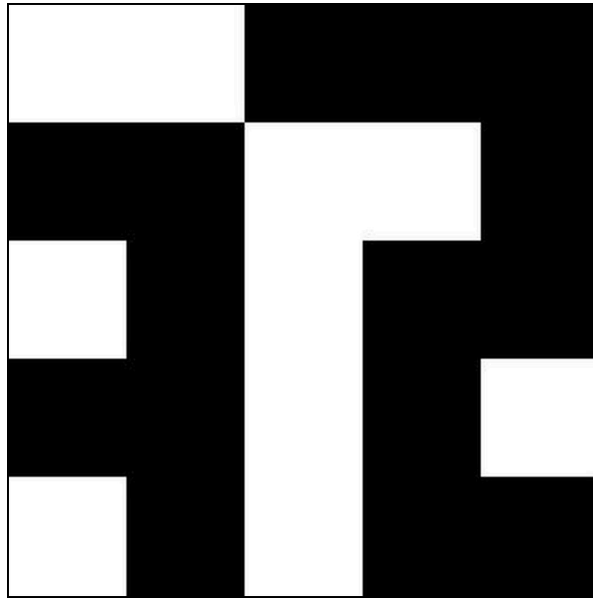

MATRICES: MONTH #077

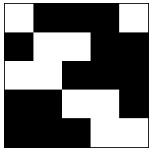

"early morning printing with the kids out of bed and with their mother updating my project and writing with the machine constantly on no longer feeling too disturbed by it"

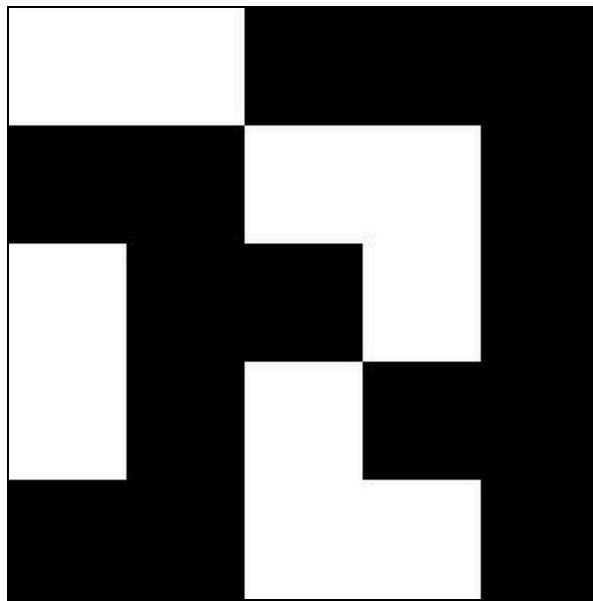

MATRICES: MONTH #078

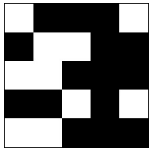

"taking care of the children cooking food and even baking and doing the dishes and folding the laundry having to use a ruler to peel off the adhesive from the aluminium tags with my nails way too soft for the task."

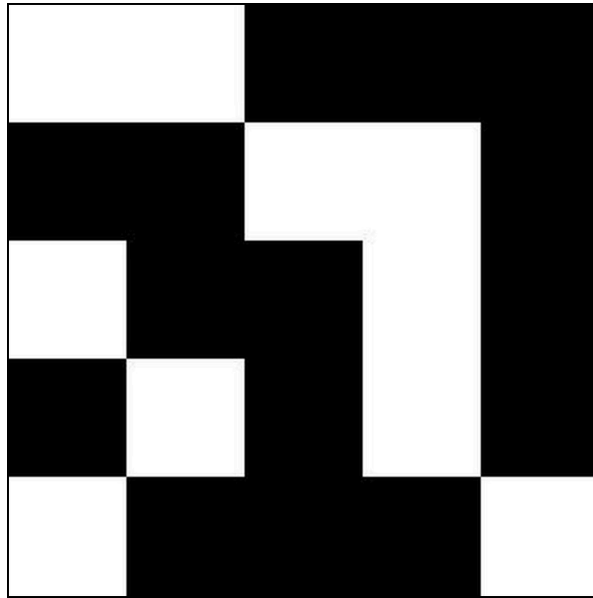

MATRICES: MONTH #079

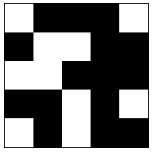

"late in the evening printing now not even wearing my ear protections any more feeling most productive and working on writings and drawings while letting the machine running also in the meanwhile putting my kids to sleep telling them a long story"

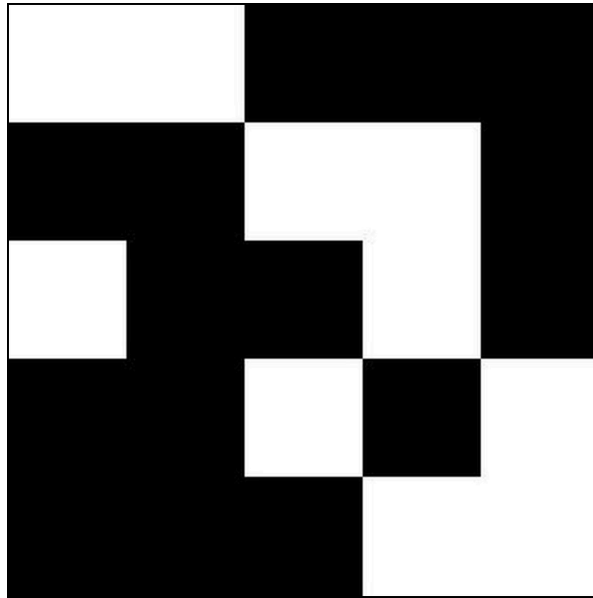

MATRICES: MONTH #080

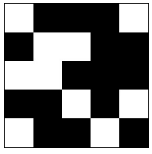

"leaving livia to school and spending the day with silvester picking plumbs and the upon our return home keeping the laser machine going and in the meantime also managing to draw"

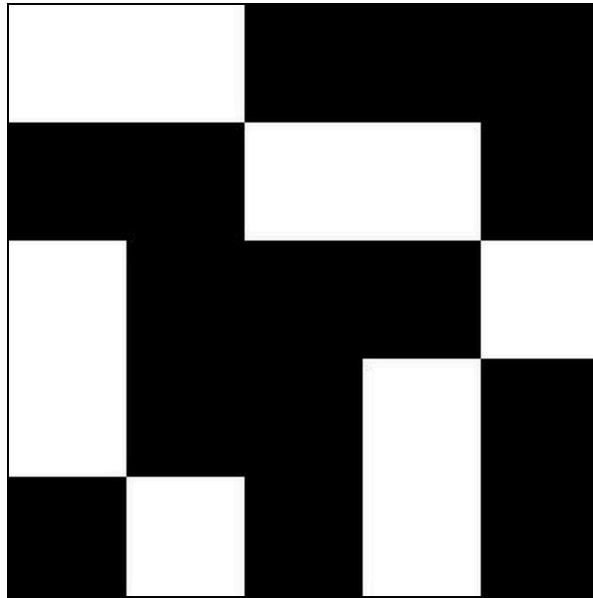

MATRICES: MONTH #081

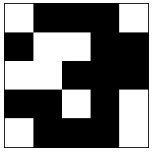

"printing quite late in the day feeling quite exhausted with silvester a bit sick whining and the house in quite a mess and myrthe working late but nonetheless managing quite well with tags"

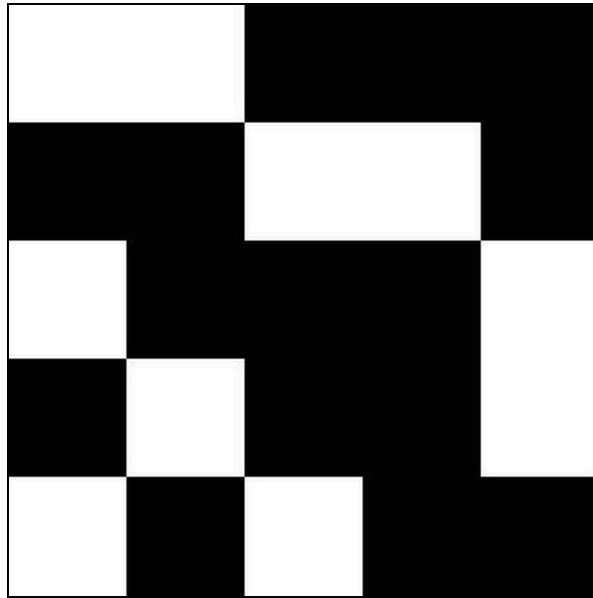

MATRICES: MONTH #082

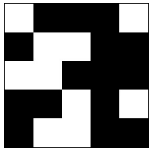

"with livia at school and at home with silvester printing this batch after taking him for a walk to the chicken zoo and later on drawing with him getting more passionate to play lego alone"

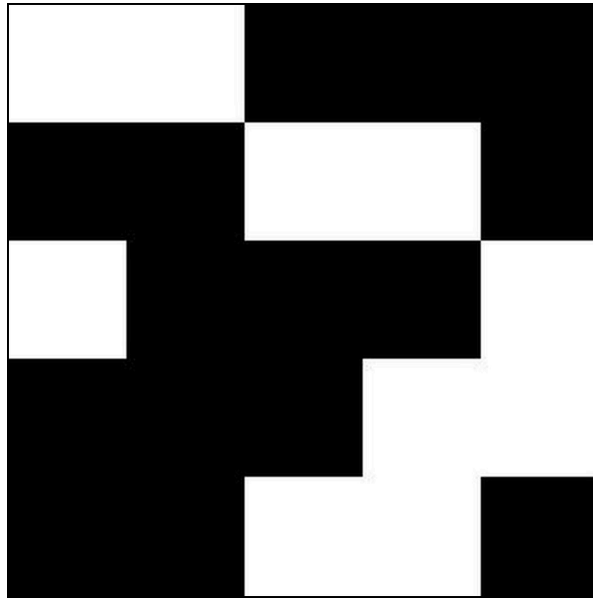

MATRICES: MONTH #083

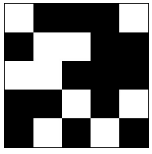

"in the evening with our greek friend panos coming over to cook for us to thanks gor all our help with his daughter aisha while her mother is home sick printing one more batch despite the children going up to play right where the machine is running"

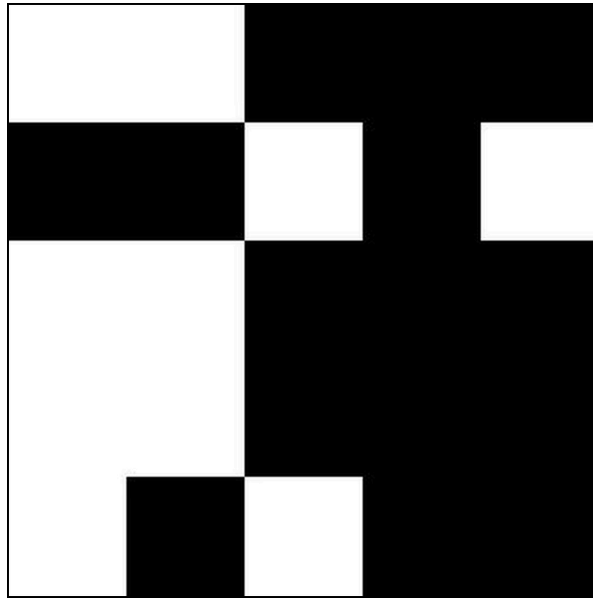

MATRICES: MONTH #084

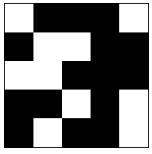

"taking a break from printing going out in the west of holland to learn how to use the sickle and later spending the day taking a last summer swim at the lake before booking a flight for august to come here and work on the app to read the project museum tags printing in the end a whole batch"

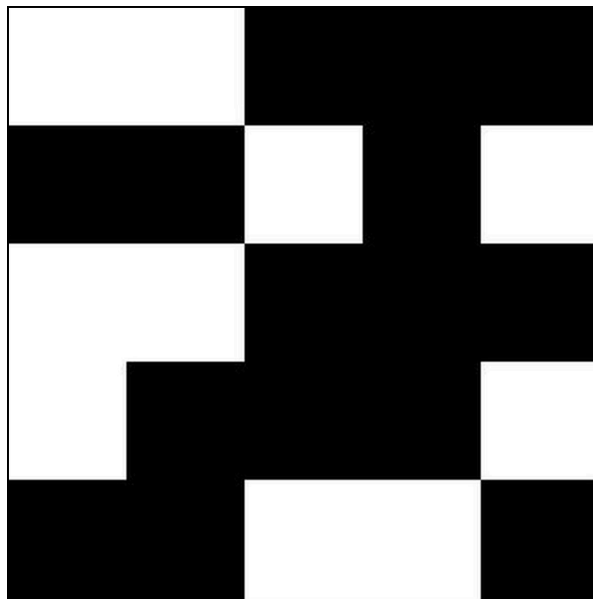

MATRICES: MONTH #085

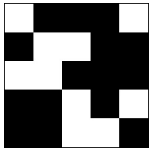

"printing this batch with silvester sick again with a laryngitis and trying to keep with him playing with his teddy bears while keeping the machine on in the attic lasering"

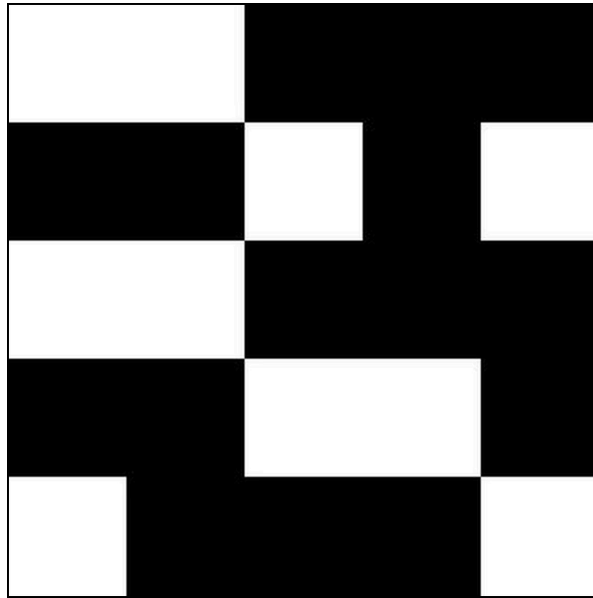

MATRICES: MONTH #086

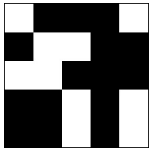

"starting to dig the foundation of our garage outside and in the meantime also printing a new batch of tags feeling most sweaty and with my nails turned quite tender from moving the soil having troubles peeling the adhesive from the tags"

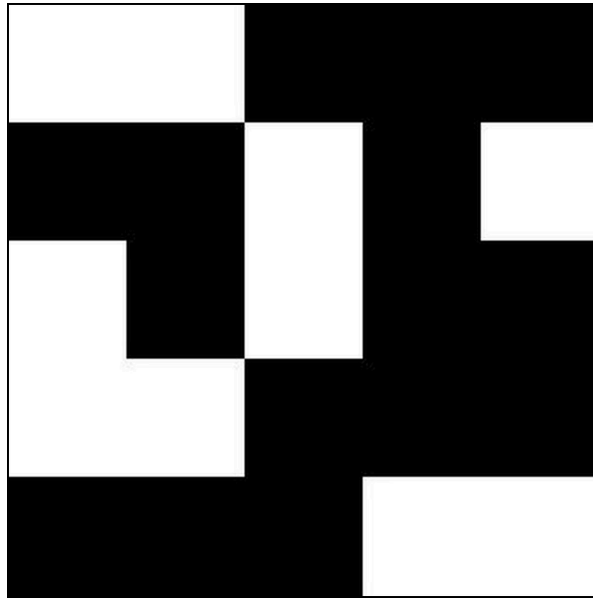

MATRICES: MONTH #087

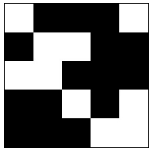

"producing this tag after picking livia up with silveater and later taking a walk and picking plumbs with mathijn and his little fioralba but still with silvester sick having to go back home and having the time yo set the laser machine to work"

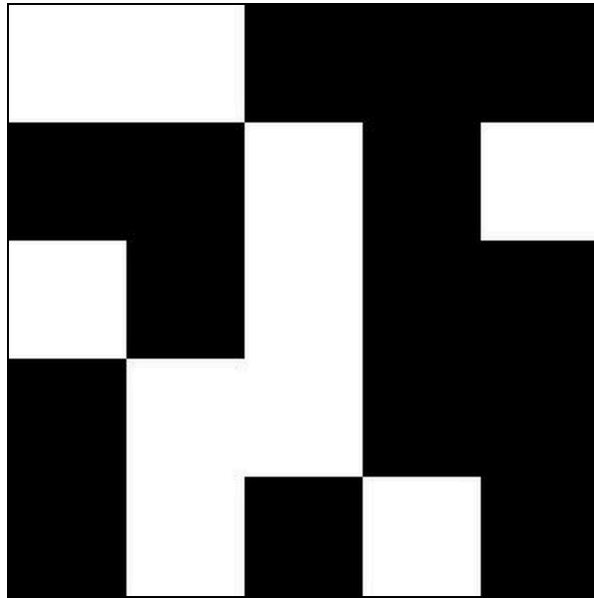

MATRICES: MONTH #088

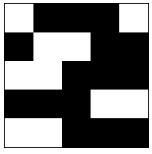

"trying to get silvester outdoor and walking a long way to the cheese farm by the dike on the other side of town and returning home printing while cooking and later drawing with silvester however quite whining"

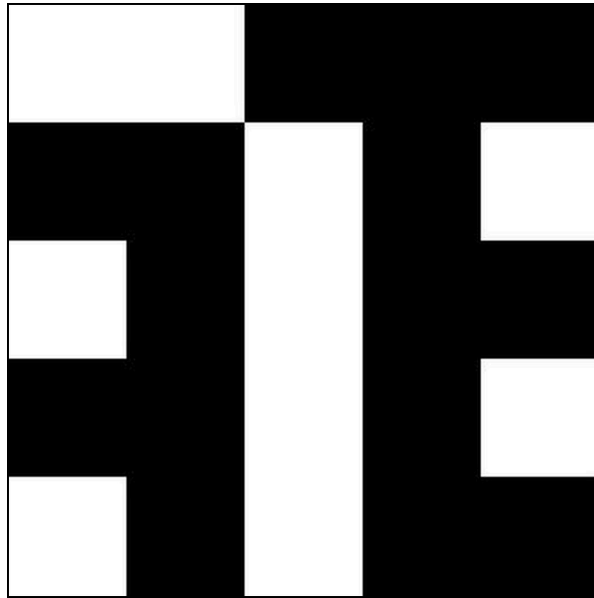

MATRICES: MONTH #089

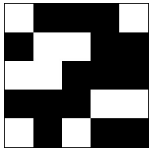

"managing this batch late in the evening while taking care of the kids and feeling most exhausted however later also with myrthe arriving still printing but this time also updating myself on the various strands of anarchism"

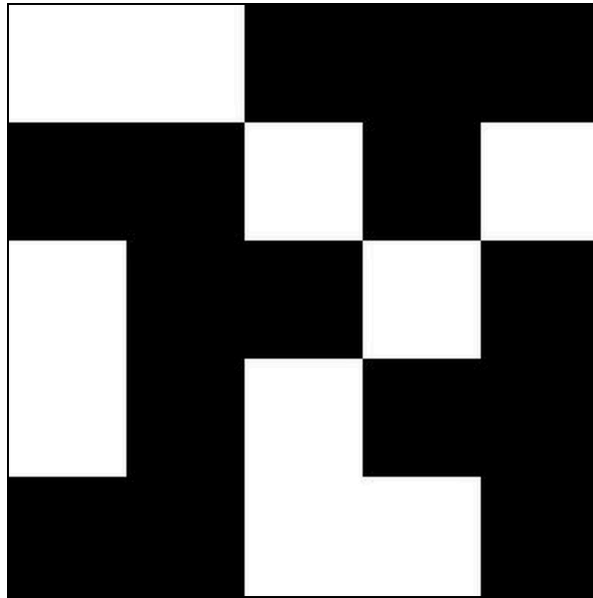

MATRICES: MONTH #090

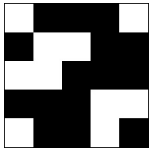

"starting to dig the foundation of our garage outside while printing more mosaic tags however with my nails all dirty from the earth and breaking while peeling the tags"

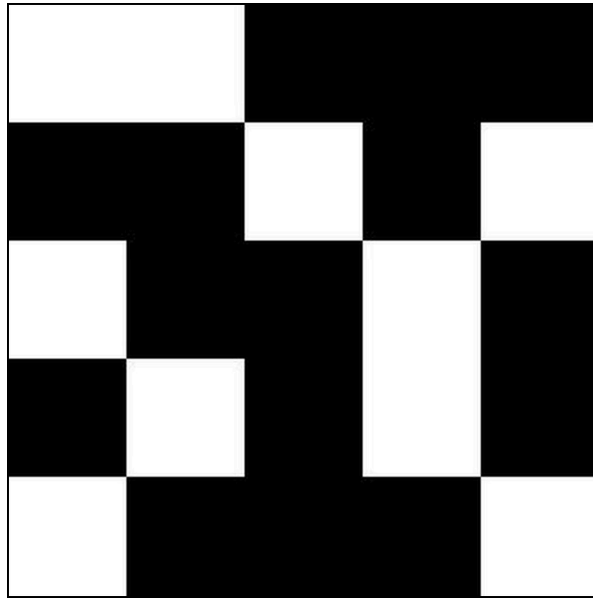

MATRICES: MONTH #091

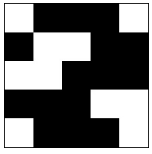

"still working outside at the garage foundation running in an out removing my dirty shoes buy not washing my hand to put the tags in the machines so as not to weaken my nails for the removal of the plastic foil"

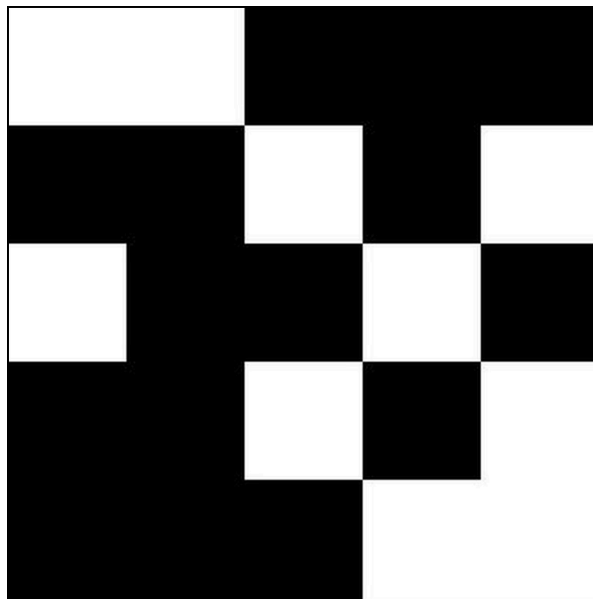

MATRICES: MONTH #092

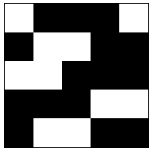

"printing during a gloomy and rainy day trying to write a few accounts of my project and entertain my son going with him to the empty city library and then doing more printing upon returning"

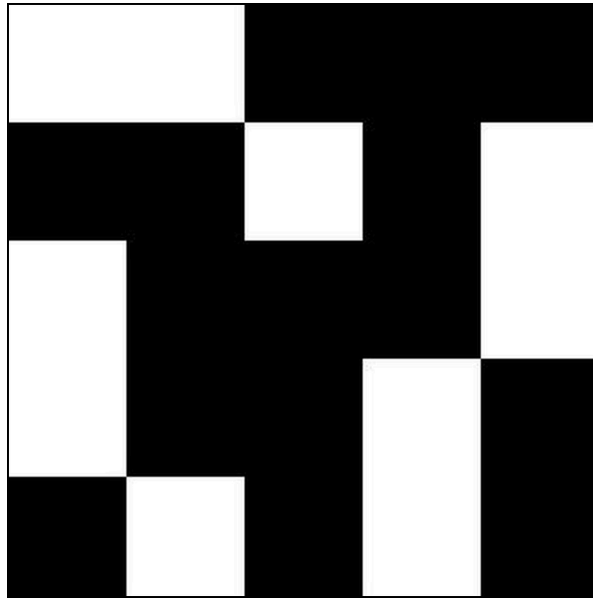

MATRICES: MONTH #093

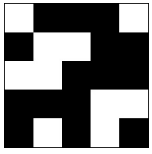

"with livia at a camp taking care of both silvester and aisha printing these tags explaining to them not to go upstairs and in the end having them to nicely play im the livong room while i kept up the printing as well as cooked and wrote in my small computer more accounts"

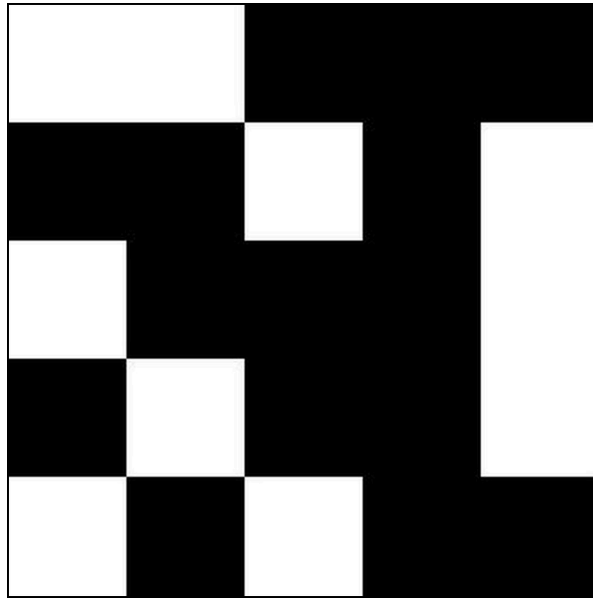

MATRICES: MONTH #094

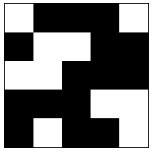

"spending the day taking aisha's mother to the hospital and the even having to pick his daughter up and take care of her and the children managing however to run up and down to print this batch despite also having to consider myrthe working at home due to a train strike"

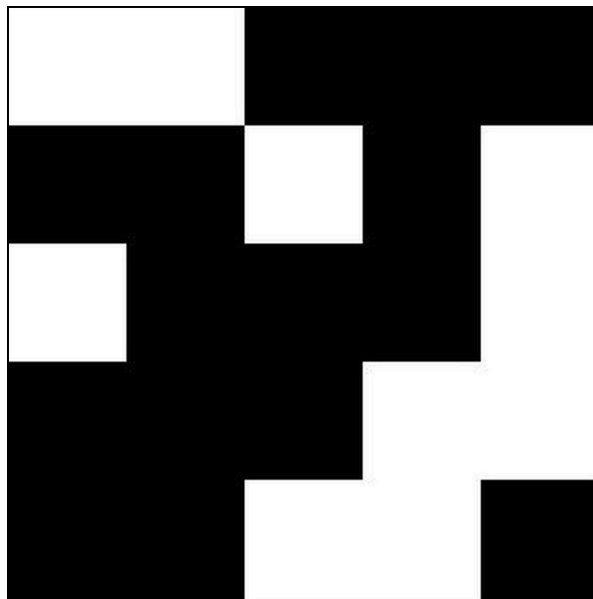

MATRICES: MONTH #095

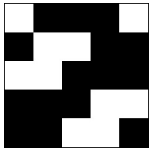

"printing this batch in the evening very tired of the day looking after the children as well as aisha taking me quite an effort to get back to work and write"

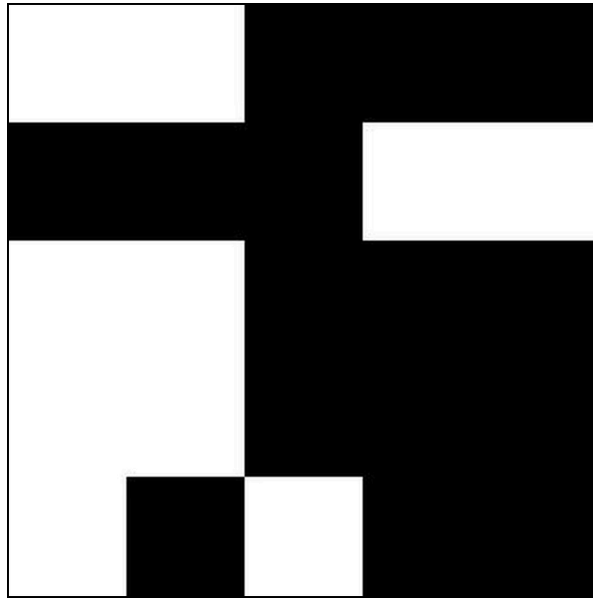

MATRICES: MONTH #096

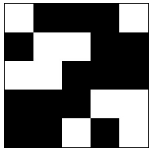

"at last with myrthe taking care of the children spending the day preparing a document to do more artistic interventions in the novegno mountain where the project museum is located and use my ear protections keeping the machine on to print this batch"

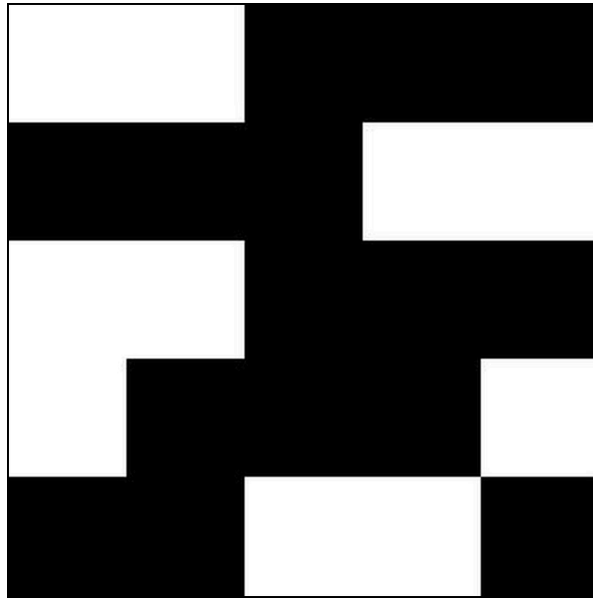

MATRICES: MONTH #097

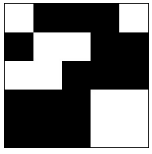

"talking a small guided tour on the dike to learn about its history and managing to print this batch of tags before and after"

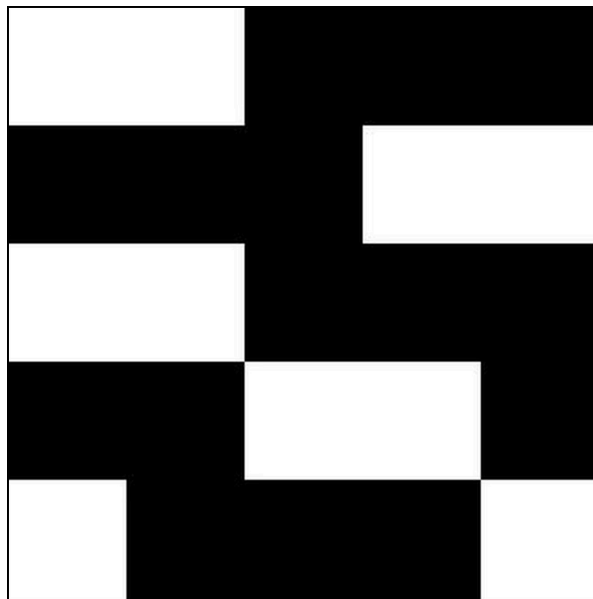

MATRICES: MONTH #098

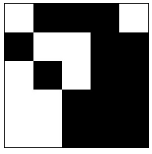

"attending some small piano concerts around town and printing this batch just on time before the evening keeping the machine off later on to enjoy some peace of mind"

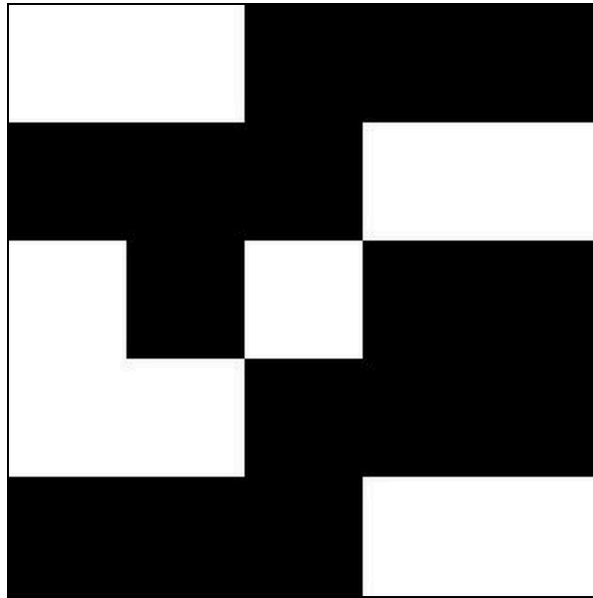

MATRICES: MONTH #099

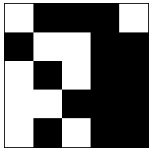

"hosting a young dutch couple who wants to move to italy and introducing them the country printing the tiles in between and getting to know they put away money with her working as a striptease dancer."

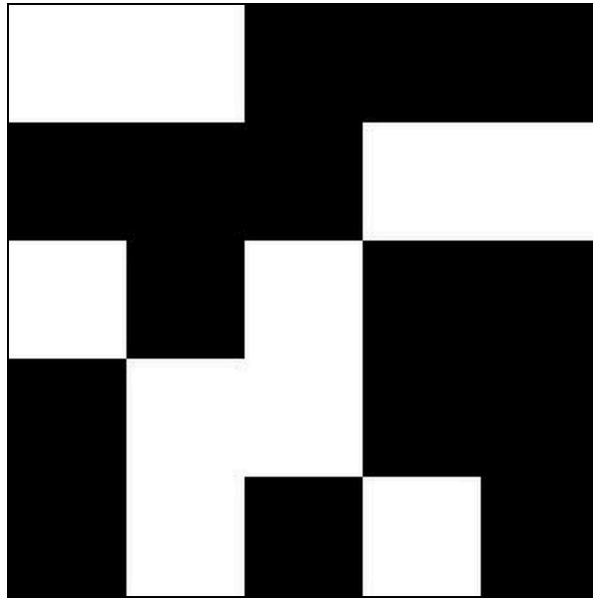

MATRICES: MONTH #100

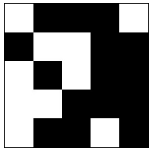

"printing after dropping livia at school and taking a small walk with silvester with still quite some heat outside despite the season"

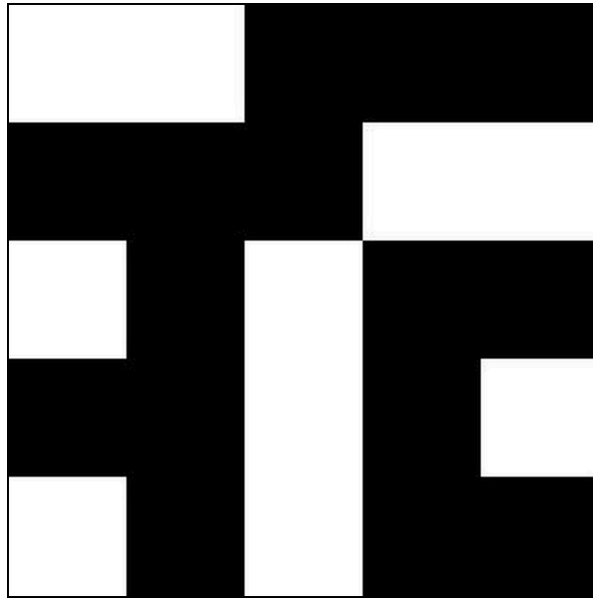

MATRICES: MONTH #101

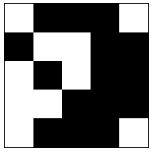

"with both kids at home and the little one being very intense printing this batch while also folding the laundry and picking walnuts with livia and later drawing"

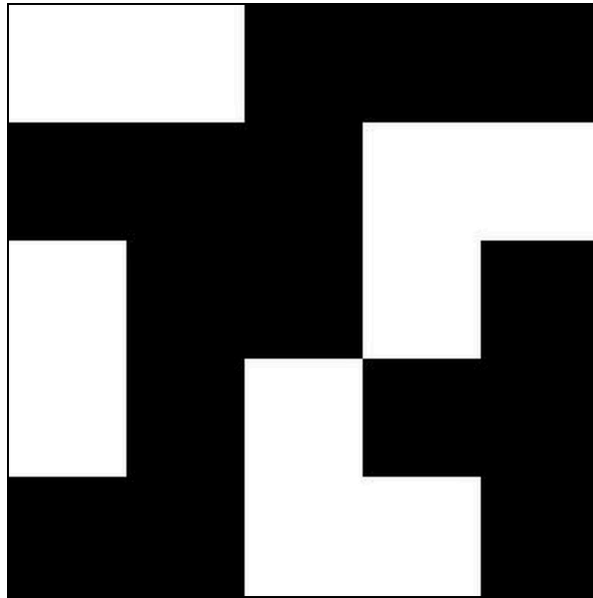

MATRICES: MONTH #102

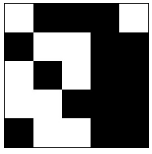

"feeling totally exhausted trying to combine my work with taking care of the children but somehow going through it and feeding them and facilitating them in their games while also printing this batch"

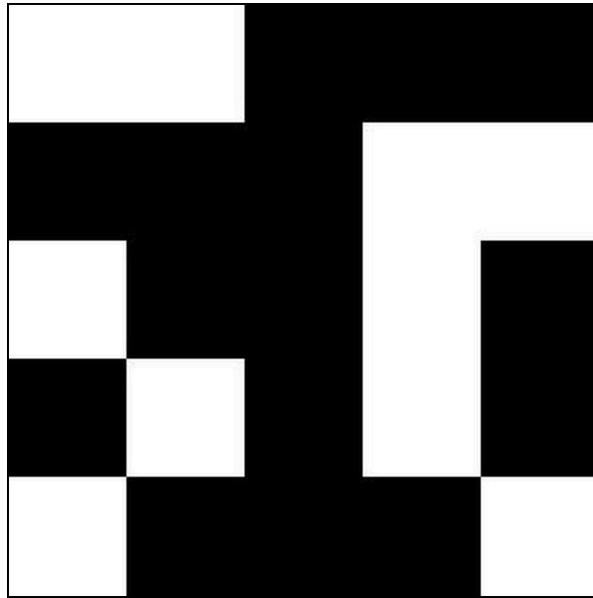

MATRICES: MONTH #103

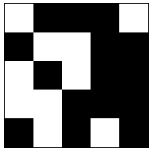

"having a lot of time to update my project with myrthe home with the kids and doing so wearing my ears protection while printing this batch"

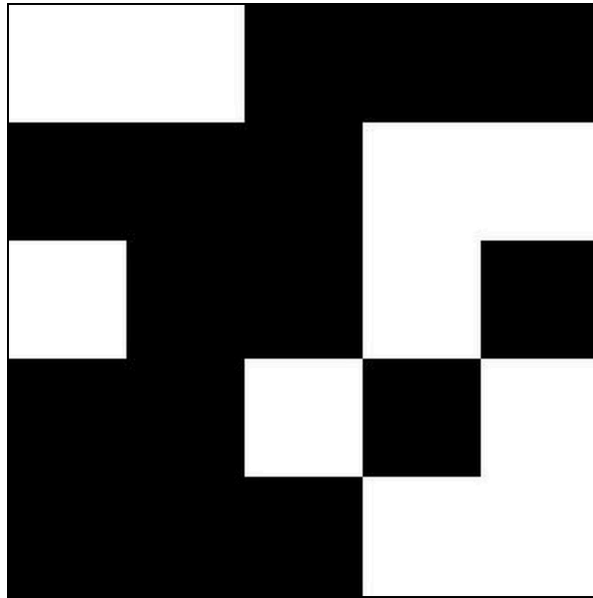

MATRICES: MONTH #104

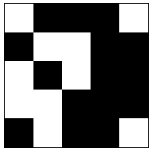

"spending the afternoon working on my first paper after years explaining the project museum and printing this batch quite smoothly not bothering so much anymore about the noise"

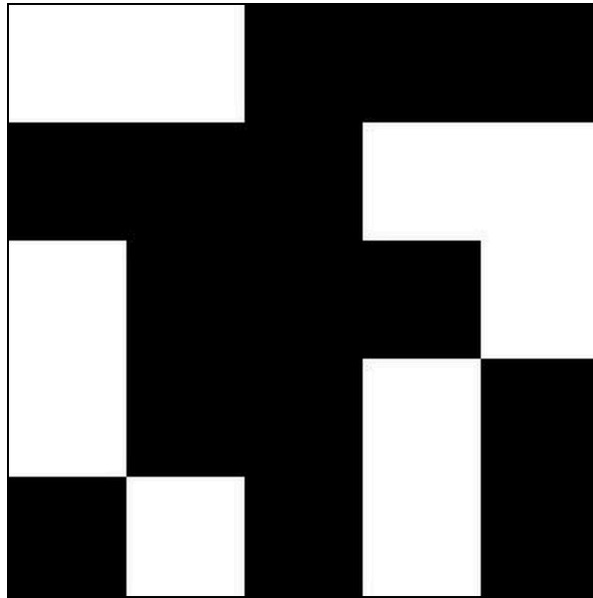

MATRICES: MONTH #105

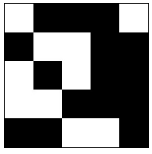

"with myrthe taking the kids to judo keeping up in the attic working at an illustration and laser printing this new batch also thinking on how to present it in a possible exhibit in paris"

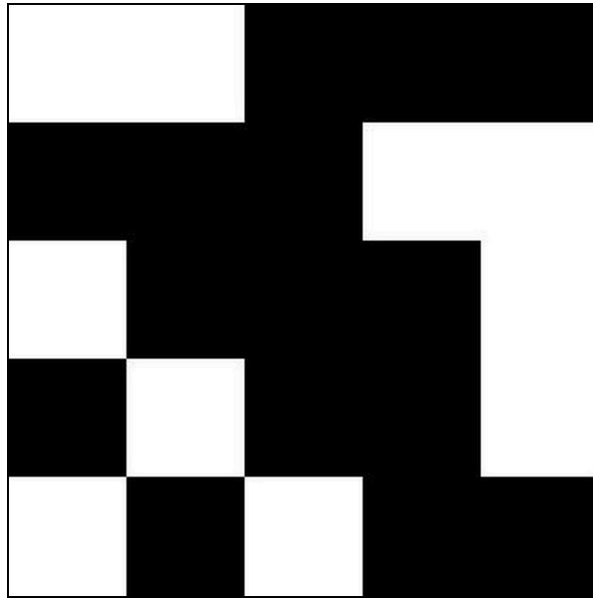

MATRICES: MONTH #106

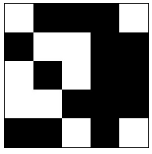

"printing now while slowly resuming my work out in the garden digging up roots to male place to our garage and forgetting the laser machine on for a long time"

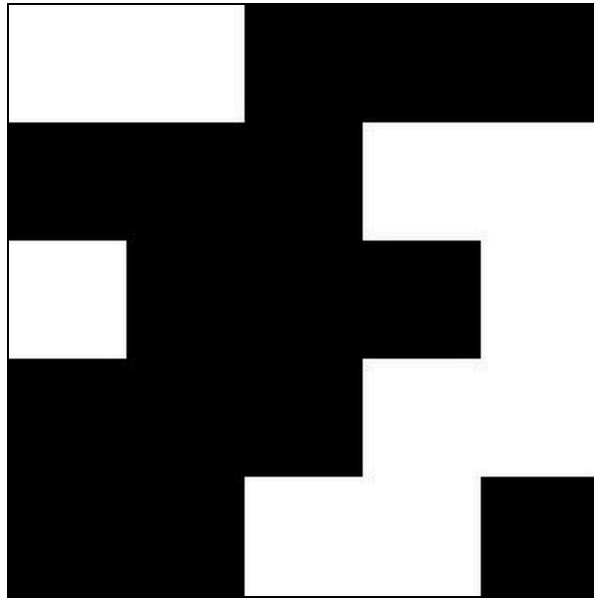

MATRICES: MONTH #107

"with silvester keeping up with the lasering of a new batch while enjoy quite a sunny weather outside still preparing the foundations for our garden garage"

MATRICES: MONTH #108

"with both kids playing outdoor and me running in and out to put new plates to print while also placing the wooden frame to host the concrete for the garage floor"